

type, such equipment requires the specific approval of the Commandant. Such approvals are published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and in addition are contained in Coast Guard publication CG-190, 'Equipment Lists'.

(b) Specifications for many of the items required to be of an approved type have been prescribed by the Commandant and are contained in Parts 160 to 164 inclusive in Subchapter Q—Specifications in 46 CFR Chapter I. In general such specifications are of interest only to the manufacturer of specific items of equipment.

Subpart 140 20—Enforcement

§ 140 20-1 Responsibility for enforcement

The Coast Guard District Commander has general responsibility for and superintendence over the inspections, enforcement, and administration of the regulations in this subchapter within his assigned district. Under the general superintendence of the Coast Guard District Commander, it is the responsibility of the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, within his marine inspection zone, to perform or have performed the inspections, enforcement and administration of the regulations in this subchapter. To accomplish these purposes, authority to perform these functions is hereby delegated to the Coast Guard District Commanders and Officers in Charge, Marine Inspection, within their respective districts and marine inspection zones. This authority may be redelegated as necessary to any person from the civilian or military branch of the Coast Guard assigned to work for such official.

§ 140 20-5 Penalty

The penalty for any violation of the regulations in this subchapter is in section 4(e) (2) of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (43 U.S.C. 1333) and reads as follows:

Any person, firm, company, or corporation who shall fail or refuse to obey any of the lawful rules and regulations issued hereunder shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $100 for each offense. Each day during which such violation shall continue shall be considered a new offense.

Subpart 140 25—Appeals and Judicial Review

§ 140 25-1 Right of appeal.

(a) Any party interested in or aggrieved by any decision or action of the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, may appeal therefrom to the Coast Guard District Commander of the district in which the action or decision was made. A further appeal may be made to the Commandant, U.S. Coast Guard, from the decision of the District Commander. Any party interested in or aggrieved by any decision or action of the Coast Guard District Commander may appeal therefrom to the Commandant, U.S. Coast Guard.

(b) Appeals from decisions or actions of the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, to the Coast Guard District Commander shall be made in writing within 30 days after the decisions or actions appealed from shall have been rendered or taken. Such an appeal shall set forth the decision or action appealed from and the reasons why the decision or action should be set aside or revised. Appeals from the decisions or actions of the Coast Guard District Commander to the Commandant shall be made in writing within 30 days after the decisions appealed from shall have been rendered.

(c) Pending the determination of the appeal, the initial decision or action of the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, or the initial decision or action of the Coast Guard District Commander shall remain in effect. The decision of the Commandant is final.

§ 140 25-5 Judicial review

Nothing in this subchapter shall be so construed as to prevent any party from seeking a judicial review of the regulations in this subchapter or any decision or action taken pursuant thereto. Section 4(b) of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (43 U.S.C. 1333) provides that United States district courts shall have original jurisdiction of cases and controversies arising under this act.
